Teen Scene (entering 6th-12th Grades)

Great Games! All ages welcome—bring the whole family! Saturday, May 20 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Do you have books that you just don't read anymore? Would you like to trade them in for something new? Come to our first Teen Book Exchange Thursday, May 25 from 6-7:30 p.m. where you can bring your gently used books and CDs and trade them in for something different! Each book you bring must be in fair condition or better and can be exchanged for one other from our selection. The more you bring, the more you can take home! Clean out your closet and come by our Teen Book Exchange!

What's the Teen Advisory Board (TAB)? TAB is a group of 6-12th graders who assist with various program. Help select materials and give the library advice on future programs and events. If you're interested, come to our next meeting! Refreshments will be served, of course. Bring a friend! Wed., May 24 at 6:30 p.m.

Do you need volunteer hours for National Honor Society, college applications or another group? Stop by the teen desk to find out about our VolunTeen program! Open to teens ages 14-18. You must be able to volunteer one evening a week and/or one Saturday a month.

Visit our blog for all the latest news and listen to interviews and more!

Thursday, May 4 at 6:30 p.m.

Watch for us in the Good Neighbor Parade! Saturday, May 6th We will be passing out a survey at the parade too! The parade kicks off at Ridge & Wentworth at 2 p.m. then heads west on Ridge Road to Torrence Ave.

See Children's Minds Soar @ Your Library! Come look at the 77 tri-motor planes painted by students in 4th-8th grade from all our Lansing schools. Binders from all schools containing children's coloring pictures of the tri-motors will also be on display this summer.

See photos from the unveiling on our Flickr account (<http://www.flickr.com/photos/lansinglibrary>)

Do you have photos from the unveiling or photos while you painted your plane? E-mail them to webmaster@lansing.lib.il.us and we'll add them to our online photo album!

Great Games! All ages welcome—bring the whole family! Saturday, May 20 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. We will have video games like DDR and Mario Kart. You can play computer games like Runescape. Or just play some old-fashioned board games, like checkers, chess and more! Visit the Friends of the Library Book Sale then stop in and play for a while!

Summer Reading Sign-Up! Begins Saturday, June 10th. We have a lot planned for this summer, make sure to visit us often! Mark your calendar for the Scholastic Book Fair, which will begin Monday, June 12th. Hours to be announced.
