

*Then
And Now*

Kelly O'Hara, 9, and James Conlin, 10, admire a painting entitled "Hour Glass", third place winner, by Thornton Fractional South art student James Crawford, as Mrs. Joanne Jensen, librarian at the Lansing Public Library, looks on.

Paintings Displayed

LANSING — Entries submitted by Thornton Fractional South art students in the art contest sponsored by the Lansing Junior Woman's Club are on display at the Lansing Library, Ridge Rd. and Chicago Ave.

In the poster division Kathy Miller won first place; Linda Hill, second; James Crawford, third; and Carol Brauer, honorable mention. Awards in the early American scene division went to Ruth Percak, first place; Nan Hovatch, second; Donna Draus, third; and Bernadette Hanacek, honorable mention.

Judges for the 26 entries were Mr. Steven Dabrowski, Mrs. Gary George, Mrs. Jack Harrier, and Mrs. Harry Nottingham. The contest chairman was Mrs. Frank Gillespie.

1968