

Lutheran Women To Hear Review

44-70
Featured guest at the next meeting of Our Savior's Lutheran Church Women will be Mrs. Joanne Jensen on Tuesday, Feb. 11 at 7:45 p.m. at the Church.

"To Catch An Angel" by Robert Russell will be reviewed. It is a story of a man who was blinded at the age of five and how he overcomes his handicap.

Mrs. Jensen is a widow with two teen-age children, is the Librarian of the Lansing Public Library, and for the past two years has had her own radio program "Let's Talk About Books" on F.M. Station WLNR every Monday at 4 p.m. Her hobbies are studying French, Spanish and English History, Collecting Cookbooks, Victorian Valentines, and Ice-Skating.

Members and friends are urged to attend this interesting meeting. Hostesses for the evening will be members of the Rachel Circle and the devotions will be given by the Dorcas Circle.

Joanne Jensen