

FLAG RAISING — The Lansing Library was presented with a new flag pole and an American Flag that had been flown over the Capitol Building at special ceremonies Friday. The pole was donated by the Lansing Rotary Club and erected by Klebs Cranes. The flag was presented by Congressman Edward Derwinski. Present at the ceremony was from left, State Representative Jack E. Walker; Mrs. Robert Jensen, head librarian; Congressman Derwinski; Mayor Jack O. McNary; Lou Flem, president of the Library Board, and Roy Jabaay, president of the Rotary Club. (JOURNAL Photo)